The Committee, in the fulfilment of its duties, may call upon the chairmen of the other board committees, any of the executive directors, officers or company secretary to provide it with information, subject to following a board approved process.

The Committee has reasonable access to the company's records, facilities and any other resources necessary to discharge its duties and responsibilities.

The Committee may form, and delegate authority to, subcommittees and may delegate authority to one or more designated members of the Committee.

7. Meeting procedures

Frequency

The Committee must hold sufficient scheduled meetings to discharge all its duties as set out in these terms of reference but subject to a minimum of two meetings per year.

Meetings in addition to those scheduled may, with approval of the chairman, be held at the request of the chief executive officer, chief risk officer or other members of senior management or at the instance of the board.

The chairman of the Committee may meet with the chief executive officer, chief risk officer and/or the company secretary prior to a Committee meeting to discuss important issues and agree on the agenda.

Attendance

The chief executive officer, chief risk officer or other members of senior management as may be required, assurance providers and board members may be in attendance at Committee meetings, but by invitation only and they may not vote.

Committee members must attend all scheduled meetings of the Committee, including meetings called on an ad hoc-basis for special matters, unless prior apology, with reasons, has been submitted to the chairman or company secretary.

The company secretary is the secretary to this Committee.

If the nominated chairman of the Committee is absent from a meeting, the members present shall elect one of the members present to act as chairman.

Agenda and minutes

The Committee may establish an annual work plan for each year to ensure that all relevant matters are covered by the agendas of the meetings planned for the year.

The annual plan must ensure proper coverage of the matters laid out in these terms of reference: the more critical matters will need to be attended to each year while other matters may be dealt with on a rotation basis over a three-year period. The number, timing and length of meetings, and the agendas are to be determined in accordance with the annual plan.

A detailed agenda, together with supporting documentation, must be circulated, at least one week prior to each meeting to the members of the Committee and other invitees.

Committee members must be fully prepared for Committee meetings, to provide appropriate and constructive input on matters for discussion.

The minutes must be completed as soon as possible after the meeting and circulated to the chairman and members of the Committee for review thereof.

The minutes must be formally approved by the Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Quorum

A representative quorum for meetings is a majority of members present.

Individuals in attendance at Committee meetings by invitation may participate in discussions but do not form part of the quorum for Committee meetings.

Evaluation
